The Positive Energy Coloring Books REFLECT series, is a 30-day Gratitude Journal that contains a variety of simple to mid-level mandala compositions, along with a few lines to make a mindful record of gratitude. Reflect on the subject of your gratitude as you select colors and complete the mandala a great exercise in fun and happiness. Positive Energy Coloring Books are each composed of 30 circular pattern designs (Mandalas). Each design is composed of hand-drawn organic shapes that have been combined and organized around a central point. The Mandala-style pattern provides a path for you to color in the round, leading you through the design. This book is printed on just one side of the paper to avoid bleedthrough. These designs lend themselves to coloring with colored pencils and fine tip markers.
