

Golf For Women: Easy-to-follow Instruction from Pro Golfs Leading Tournament Winner

Women golfers will find the ideal teacher in Kathy Whitworth, winner of eighty-eight professional tournaments--more than any woman or man in golf history. In Golf for Women, she shares her theories, skills, and experiences derived from over 30 years of playing and teaching. Illustrated with 120 instructional photographs, Golf for Women is simple enough for a beginner, but offers advice and techniques that advanced players can use. Each chapter covers a specific fundamental or shot, taking the reader from tee to green in an orderly fashion. Topics include: The fundamentals of the Golf Swing: Grip, alignment, stance, hand positions and more; Driving: how to add distance without slicing the ball; The mystery of Long Iron Play: tips on a difficult shot; Trouble shots and how to play them; Chipping, Bunker Shots and Putting.
