

The werebears of the Ursa Club love to share... When Gina goes to visit her best friend at her college, she immediately feels out of her element. Haywood University is full of old buildings and old-money. And the oldest club in town is the exclusive Ursa Club. Once a year, the club throws open its doors for a wild party that everyone wants to be part of. When girls start getting turned away at the door, the beautifully curvy Gina figures its time to go home. That is, until a gorgeous man with emerald eyes invites her inside. Ginas lusciously curved body has attracted the attention of two members of the Ursa Club and before long, Gina finds out just why this club is so secretive. The men of the Ursa Club are all gorgeous, sexy, masculine...and not quite human. Its mating time for the shifters and when there arent enough desirable women around, the werebears of the Ursa Club have to share.
