

Under His Wings

The decision to help St. Marys Orphanage completely alters Marianne Lewis plans for the summer. Leaving behind her friends complaints and her familys planned trip to New York, she plunges whole-heartedly into the work ahead. With her compassion for children, Marianne soon becomes well-loved among the orphans, and begins to win the bitter heart of the orphanages elderly matron. Little did she know the trials she would face by making such a sacrifice. Will her faith sustain her when tragedy and sorrow strike the orphanage? Could she learn to place her whole trust under the wings of her Heavenly Father to guide and protect her?
