

Mozarts Sister (Women of History) (Volume 1)

Nannerl Mozart was just as talented as her little brother, Wolfgang, but because she was a woman. As children Nannerl and Wolfgang Mozart performed before the crowned heads of Europe. But behind the glamour lurked dark difficulties: the hardship of travel, agonizing bouts of illness, and the constant concern over money. Their autocratic father, Leopold, was driven by a desire to bring his sons' genius to the attention of the world. But what about Nannerl? In a time when women's choices were limited, what hope did she have of ever realizing her own dreams? Share Nannerl's journey as she discovers her unique purpose.
