College student Aaron Samuels is in love with his boss, Logan Remora. After four long years of working under his boss in every conceivable position except the one he wants, bent over the desk with his pants around his ankles, Aaron is ready to give up and move on to greener pastures. A promising job offer right after graduation seems like fates way of kicking Aaron in the ass. He turns in his notice at work with a heavy heart, though Aaron knows hes made the right decision. After all, he couldnt spend the rest of his life mooning over Logan. Then a torrid, late night tryst with the man Aaron believes to be Logans twin propels him into an emotional tailspin of guilt and confusion. And when he learns the truth, it only gets more challenging.
