

See Jane Win for Girls: A Smart Girls Guide to Success

In the 1990's, child psychologist Sylvia Rimm and her daughters surveyed more than 1,000 satisfied, successful women. Their goal was to identify the essential childhood elements that encouraged these women to achieve fulfilling careers so other parents could give their daughters the same advantages. Their findings were published in See Jane Win, a New York Times best-seller. See Jane Win teaches parents how to help their daughters. SEE JANE WIN FOR GIRLS teaches daughters how to help themselves. The comments and experiences of successful women inspire young readers; practical advice helps them make positive changes and choices. Girls learn to win in all areas of their lives, from family and friends to school and learning, motivation, character development, and more. Includes quizzes and resources.
