

FROM THE HISTORY & CONTENTS (Esoteric Sources of Anthroposophy) (Vol. 1)

This volume is an important text for anyone interested in the development of Rudolf Steiners teaching and for those wishing to explore the advice and admonitions Steiner provided for his early esoteric students. This collection of letters, circulars, and lectures offer a glimpse of the birth of the anthroposophic movement from the German section of the Theosophical Society of the late nineteenth century. One gains a clear picture of why Steiner could no longer work within the theosophic framework, as well as the events that led to the split between the Theosophical Society under the leadership of Annie Besant and the Esoteric School under Steiners guidance and leadership. Primarily in the form of letters are the specific exercises and advice that Steiner gave to pupils who wished to further their spiritual capacities. Also included are his early lectures and teachings concerning the Masters and their relationship to human evolution. From the History and Contents of the First Section of the Esoteric School 1904-1914 includes introductory remarks by the books original editor, Hella Wiesberger.
