

Eclipse the Stars (Transgender and Genderqueer Erotic Romance)

Jody used to be the star of the show. Now that her transgender girlfriends making heads turn, can she set jealousy aside to give Renata the love and commitment she deserves? Blurb: Jody and Renata have been a couple since the start of Renatas transition from male to female. So much has changed in that time. Jody used to be the beautiful, successful actress, and Renata the mousy, insecure, eternally-upstaged girlfriend. Ever since Renatas surgery, shes gained confidence, stopped worrying about passing, and blossomed into an incredibly vibrant woman. Now Renatas gaining all the attention while Jodys getting less acting work and worrying about fading looks. Can Jody set her jealousy aside to give Renata the love and commitment she deserves? Warnings: This transgender lesbian love story contains a jealous girlfriend, a less-than-wild night out, and explicit bedroom romance. Word Count: 5,000 Excerpt: The old ladies were already at the table, but they leaped from their seats to welcome Renata! Oh, Renata, dont you look lovely! Hugs all around, hugs for Renata, wonderful Renata What a smashing outfit. You always look so well put-together. Yes, such a wonderful sense of style. Youll have to take me shopping some time. Jody silently slipped Renatas jacket from her shoulders, earning a nasty look from the waitress after nearly elbowing the woman in the chest. Jody walked almost all the way to the front of the restaurant to hang up their coats. When she got back to the table, she realized there wasnt a place set for her. Renata was already deep in conversation by then, and when Jody tapped her shoulder, one of the elderly women said, I think youll have to give us a few more minutes. No, Im Theyd had dinner together at least six times over the past few years. Granted, the old ladies were more Renatas friends than Jodysan offshoot of one of the first womens groups Renata joined when she began her transitionbut stillshouldnt they remember? Im Jody. The women looked up at her, all of them now, all eyes on Jody. Clearly, they didnt know who she was. Im Renataspartner? Jody felt like she was outing herself all over again. The silver heads started to nod, and smiles crept across the ladies lips. Oh, of course! Julie!  Other titles in the Transgender and Genderqueer Erotic Romance series include: Friends of Dorothy Dressing for Dinner Third Rail A Wolf in Grandmothers Clothing Eclipse the Stars Licorne Spring Fever Everybody Knows Glitter in the Gutter and more!  Giselle Renarde is a queer Canadian, avid volunteer, and contributor to more than 100 short story anthologies, including Best Womens Erotica, Best Lesbian Erotica, Best Bondage Erotica, and Best Lesbian Romance.
