

This I Believe, and Other Essays

Twenty years after his death, the ideas of E.F. Schumacher still resonate through the environmental movement. With his deep spiritual vision and rejection of Western materialism and economic exploitation, Schumacher saw the need to give societies, communities and individuals practical tools for change. He is best known for his book Small is Beautiful: Economics as if people mattered, which became an international best-seller. This I Believe is the only book that covers the whole range of Schumacher's thinking - essential reading for all admirers of Schumacher and his work - published to mark the 20th anniversary of his death. This I Believe will introduce to a new audience the freshness, clarity and profundity of his thinking, which has inspired a generation.
